FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

This case has been referred to the United States magistrate judge for initial screening pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and a standing order of reference from the district court. The findings and recommendation of the magistrate judge are as follow:

I.

This is a pro se civil rights action brought by William Dean Morrison, a former inmate at the Hunt County Jail, challenging the conditions of his confinement. On October 2, 2007, plaintiff tendered an undecipherable 21-page handwritten complaint to the district clerk. However, he did not pay the statutory filing fee or seek leave to proceed in forma pauperis. On November 8, 2007, a notice of deficiency was sent to plaintiff at the Hunt County Jail, the address listed in his complaint. Plaintiff was ordered to either pay the filing fee or file an application to proceed in forma pauperis within 20 days, or the case would be dismissed.¹ No action was taken in response to that order. On December 7, 2007, a second notice of deficiency was mailed to plaintiff instructing him to either pay the statutory filing fee or file an application to proceed in forma pauperis. Five days later, the unopened envelope containing the second deficiency notice was returned to the clerk with the notation, "Return to Sender. Not Here." The court now determines that this case should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

II.

A district court has authority to dismiss a case for want of prosecution or failure to comply with a court order. FED. R. CIV. P. 41(b); Larson v. Scott, 157 F.3d 1030, 1031 (5th Cir. 1998). This authority "flows from the court's inherent power to control its docket and prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases." Boudwin v. Graystone Insurance Co., 756 F.2d 399, 401 (5th Cir. 1985), citing Link v. Wabash Railroad Co., 370 U.S. 626, 82 S.Ct. 1386, 8 L.Ed.2d 734 (1962). Such a dismissal may be with or without prejudice. See Long v. Simmons, 77 F.3d 878, 879-80 (5th Cir. 1996). A dismissal with prejudice is appropriate only if the failure to comply with the court order was the result of purposeful delay or contumacious conduct and the imposition of lesser sanctions would be futile. Id.; see also Berry v. CIGNA/RSI-CIGNA, 975 F.2d 1188, 1191 (5th Cir. 1992).

Two deficiency notices were mailed to plaintiff at the Hunt County Jail-- the only address provided to the court. However, plaintiff is no longer incarcerated in that facility and has not furnished the court with his current address. Without this information, the court cannot communicate with plaintiff and this litigation cannot proceed. Dismissal is clearly warranted under these circumstances. See Blackmon v. Texas Board of Pardons and Paroles, No. 3-04-CV-1520-N, 2004 WL 1809746 at *1 (N.D. Tex. Aug. 12, 2004) (Kaplan, J.), rec. adopted, 2004 WL 2049218 (N.D. Tex. Sept. 3, 2004) (dismissing pro se prisoner complaint for failure to provide court with current address).

RECOMMENDATION

This case should be dismissed without prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

A copy of this report and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party may file written objections to the recommendation within 10 days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b). The failure to file written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Services Automobile Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).

DATED: January 7, 2008.
